

FLORIDA BOARD OF GOVERNORS
NOTICE OF PROPOSED REGULATION AMENDMENT

DATE:

General Counsel, Board of Governors, State University System, 325 W. Gaines Street, Suite

6.006 Acceleration Mechanisms

(1) Definition . Within the context of these regulations, an early college dual enrollment course is defined as a postsecondary course creditable toward high school completion and a college degree (as opposed to a career or technical certificate).

(2) Each baccalaureate degree program offered by a university shall be designed so that students may complete a minimum of twenty-five percent (25%) of degree requirements through the acceleration mechanisms listed below:

- (a) Achievement of specified performance levels on standardized institutional or departmental examinations;
- (b) Recognition of satisfactory performance on examinations identified in the Articulation Coordinating Committee Credit-By-Exam Guidelines as approved by the Board of Governors. These examinations include those associated with the Advanced Placement Programs of the College Board, the International Baccalaureate Program, the Advanced International Certificate of Education Program, DANTES/DSST, Excelsior College, Defense Language Proficiency Test, and the College-Level Examination Program;
- (c) Satisfactory performance in community college or university early college dual enrollment courses taken prior to graduation from high school; or
- (d) Achievement of specified performance of military experience as identified in the Articulation Coordinating Committee Credit for Military Experience Equivalency List as approved by the Board of Governors; or the minimum postsecondary grade point average established by the postsecondary institution.
- (e) Any combination of the above acceleration mechanisms.

(c) Instructional materials assigned for use within dual enrollment courses shall be made available to dual enrollment students from Florida public high schools free of charge. This subsection does not prohibit a university from providing instructional materials at no cost to a home education student or student from a private school. Instructional materials purchased by a district school board or institution board of trustees on behalf of dual enrollment students shall be the property of the board against which the purchase is charged.

(d) Each university shall establish a program of early admission (full-time early college dual enrollment) for eligible secondary school students qualifying for such a program under provisions of subsection 1007.271(2), Florida Statutes.

(5) Effective beginning with students admitted Summer Semester 2009, early college dual enrollment courses that meet core state university admission requirements in English/Language Arts, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, Social Sciences, or Foreign Languages (as specified in Board of Governors Regulation 6.002(6)(a)(1)) shall receive the same weighting as Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, and Advanced International Certificate of Education courses in the calculation of the high school grade point average used for admission decisions.

(6) Each university shall describe clearly the various options available for acceleration and the criteria governing such options in its catalog, university website, and other appropriate publications or advisement materials.
