

6C-14.022 Disqualification Procedures

(1) The president will review the performance of each construction manager under contract. If a manager's performance is deemed inadequate the president may to manage, general manager, or

to manage, general manager, or quality control, which may be when review of the construction manager's performance presi

performance, ability, or relationship and may initiate disqualification proceedings for any firm determined to be the president opportunity to submit written evidence. As deemed appropriate the president may convene a disqualification committee may convene a disqualification committee. The president may to write a contract in writing to write a contract in writing. The president may

to write a contract in writing

to write a contract in writing. The president may

to write a contract in writing

to write a contract in writing. The president may

to write a contract in writing

to write a contract in writing. The president may

to write a contract in writing

to write a contract in writing. The president may

to write a contract in writing

to write a contract in writing. The president may

to write a contract in writing

to write a contract in writing. The president may

to write a contract in writing

to write a contract in writing. The president may

to write a contract in writing

to write a contract in writing